February Program

The February program was presented by Kyle Magrill of CircuitWerkes. Kyle began the program by telling us that CircuitWerkes specializes in making unique products for the broadcast industry. Then he introduced a product CircuitWerkes has under development - Site Sentry 4. This product has some interesting features that allow it to monitor a remote site, and then react to conditional changes. Another feature included streaming audio which could be used as a remote confidence monitor. It is programmed through a GUI which Kyle demonstrated along with the streaming audio.

Kyle can be reached at the contact information shown below. Thanks to Kyle for his presentation and to Chris Shute of the Broadcaster's General Store (BGS). BGS represents CircuitWerkes' product line and is one of our Sustaining members.
